Approved For Release 2001/04/04-04-04-05-0-045/160870005

CD NO.

25X1A

(XXX NTRY Albania

DATE DISTR. 28 SEPT 51

SUBJECT Communist Party Schools and Youth Organization in Southern Albania

NO. OF PAGES 1

25X1A

NO. OF ENCLS.

SUPPLEMENT TO

25X1X

REPORT NO.

- Members of the Communist Party in the village of Bularat attend the Party school every Friday evening. After three months the students are given examinations. The Moslems who pass the examinations are then sent to a Party school in Gjinokaster, and the Christians to a Party school in Sarande. After training in these latter schools, the students again take examinations and are sent to Vrysera (sic) or Gjorgueat, where they are taught by Fotis Zog, leader of the Communist Party in the Doropolis (sic) area.
- 2. Among those who have attended the Communist Party school in Bularat are:

Takis Agoras: postmaster in Gjorgucat; age 27.

Athanasics Bakos: secretary of the Vrysera localitet; age 35.

Kostas Vasilis: clerk in a Delvine cooperative; age 23.

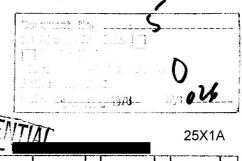

The Communist Party Youth Organization of Bularat has about 60 members, most of whom are girls. It is subordinate to the Youth Organization of Gjinokaster and is under the direction of Elli Daliani, 22 years of age, who has also attended the Communist Party school in Bularat. Other youth leaders in Bularat

George Cikola: from Doropolis,

Georgia Prempti.

Evangelos Pulas: from Sotire.

Sevo Tarifa.

CLASSIFICATION SEQ RET/CONTROL -MAYA X NSRB # X AIR VISIOAA F 81

25X1A